

Choice Board→SURVIVING the Alaskan Wilderness

Surviving the Alaskan Wilderness Make a poster illustrating the important points in this video. On the back of your poster, write a short note telling how you made your choices.	Same or Different? Think of another book character or movie character that has had to survive in a wilderness. Make a Venn Diagram to compare/contrast the two. For more points, use a three-way Venn and compare three characters.	What’s Buck’s Hashtag? If Buck was around today, many people would want to “follow” him. You are the person who writes his tweets. Compose at least ten tweets in sequence and share them with your class. For more points, add tweets from other animals or people who might be following him.
Gold Rush Acrostic Research The Alaskan Gold Rush .Write an acrostic using the initials from one of these titles: (Alaska Gold Rush, Call of the Wild, or Research)	Survivor Characteristics Make a chart of the most important survival traits. Write an example from Call of the Wild or another one of your favorite survival in the wild books that illustrates each one. Example: Characteristic Adaptability: Buck figured out how to keep warm when he slept.	Historical Photography Use Powerpoint, Prezi, Slidrocket, PhotoStory, or other presentation software and build a slideshow for your class using primary documents. Be sure to add the website on your slides.
Perilous Journey North. – Math Connection Find the list of items required to enter the Yukon territory by the Royal Mounted Police. You have reached the dangerous Chilkoot pass with these items...you need to get rid of 25% of the weight, since 2 of your 8 dogs aren’t pulling their weight. What will you get rid of? Estimate the weight of items using Amazon’s shipping weight details	Profiting from the Gold Rush You run a mercantile in Seattle in the 1890’s and have many customers requesting the best clothing for their Yukon adventures. Research the science behind heat conduction and insulation. Design an advertisement for your store that shows Yukon clothing that is ‘scientifically proven’ to ‘outperform’ other items.	Visit Dangerous Australia Design a brochure or make a video for Australian Tourism Bureau that supplies information about survival tips in one of Australia’s wilderness area. The bureau is particular interested in attracting rich adventurers who went to the Yukon during the Gold Rush.
